"Roadblocks pt. 4- Dealing with Foes"

Nehemiah 2-6

Nathan Crowe

Join us NEXT Sunday, Nov. 23rd for Eastview's Thanksgiving Luncheon

Immediately following the morning service downstairs in the Fellowship Hall.

Turkey, ham, sides, coffee and water provided. Dessert or salad appreciated, but not mandatory.

Everyone is invited to join us for a great time of food and fellowship!

We still need 2 volunteers to sign up to cook a turkey.

Signup sheet in the foyer. Pickup date is this Friday morning!

Fellowship Team Meeting- There will be a brief meeting TODAY after Worship Service, in the Sanctuary, to help finalize plans.

New to Eastview and want to learn more? Join us for lunch.

If you've started attending in the past 6 months, you're invited to our "New Attenders Luncheon" where you'll get to meet members of our leadership, hear about Eastview's vision and goals, and get to ask any questions you want about the church.

December 7th, immediately after service. No cost for lunch.

Please RSVP 765-342-4483 or to nathan@eastviewchristianchurch.org.

Monthly Mission Team Update

We were Blessed that we were able to give $400 to Churches in Missions for their Thanksgiving food drive. Most of the time was spent adopting our mission budget for next year to be approved by the Leadership Team. Our church family's offerings and tithes go to support missions and missionaries who are true warriors for JESUS CHRIST in the war against Satan and his evil ways!

Nathan's Notes...

As we conclude our series on "Roadblocks", the problems that get in the way of our service to God, we're going to discuss an inevitable problem: direct opposition. People standing up to oppose our service to God is often a shocking thing, but it should not surprise us. 2 Timothy 3:12 says, "Indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted." The reality is that whereas God and His mission are perfectly good, human hearts are not.

But the question is, "How do we respond in the face of such opposition?" That's what we will examine today as we study the story of Nehemiah rebuilding the walls around Jerusalem and the opposition he faced.
