Rick's Reflections...

Mother's Day is the special time of year when you get to celebrate your first BFF and the person you almost always turn to when you need advice. Mother's Day is also a great time to show your affection for all the other wonderful women who have had a significant influence in your life. We are probably all familiar with these quotes;

"All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother" Abraham Lincoln.

"God could not be everywhere, and therefore he made mothers." Rudyard Kipling

One that is not as well known but insightful is from Lysa TerKeurst. She says, "Motherhood is a million little moments that God weaves together with grace, redemption, laughter, tears, and most of all, love."

I believe that a mom's greatest contribution to the kingdom of God might not be so much something she does as much as someone she raises. The spiritual, moral, and social foundation of a child is often influenced more by their mom than any other person. As their first teacher and most observed model the impact is hard to overcome. Maybe that is why C. S. Lewis said that; "Children are not a distraction from more important work. They are the most important work."

Today we want to honor those who have done the work! Thank you and God bless the noble task of motherhood.

Blessings,
